

Rebar Estimator

Job Type: Full-time

Location: Edmonton, AB

Job Description

Rebar Estimator is required to prepare estimates of quantities of fabricated reinforcing bars, mesh and accessories required for projects that Sherwood Steel is preparing to offer a bid to general contractors in a timely manner.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Demonstrate conduct consistent with Sherwood Steel's vision and values
- Prepare timely estimates of the quantities of fabricated reinforcing bars, mesh and accessories required for bidding projects.
- Communicate effectively and professionally with customers and co-workers regarding all aspects of the estimating and bidding process.
- Tracking of addenda and updates, to ensure accurate estimating and to keep management aware of bid schedules and upcoming work.

Job Requirements

- Two years of experience as a reinforcing bar or structural steel detailer or equivalent construction/field estimating experience
- Knowledge of concrete structures, CRSI/ACI standards
- Good communication and computer skills is a must have
- Demonstrated analytical and problem solving abilities
- Ability to track plan revisions/bid updates against previous work
- Must be able to meet critical deadlines and handle changing priorities
- Ability to review bid plans to assist in the assessment of the project, project scope and bidding strategy
- Able to work as part of a team as well as individually

Preferred Qualifications and Education

- Two year technical or vocational degree in drafting or construction-related field

Physical Demands

- Typical office activities
- Walking, sitting, standing, bending
- Using hands to operate objects, tools, computers and other electronic equipment
- Lifting/handling computers and related equipment
- Vision abilities including close Vision and adjusting focus

*** Please submit a cover letter and resume to careers@sherwoodsteel.com ***